

Township of Roxbury Monthly Newsletter January 2018 News & Events Around Town

One Amazing Township; Six Great Communities!

REVALUATION

Roxbury is undergoing a town-wide revaluation. In the coming months, inspectors from Appraisal Systems, Inc. will visit your property, measuring and photographing only the exterior of all buildings and inspecting the interior. Please check the township website for detailed information. There is an interactive map to see where the inspectors are currently working. There is also information about the inspector's themselves i.e. height, hair/eye color along with their vehicle description make, model, color and license plate. Should you have any further questions, please contact Appraisal Systems directly at 201-493-8530.

Pre-paying 2018 Taxes

Please check the town's website for important information if you wish to pre-pay your 2018 property taxes and have it recorded in 2017. Please consult your tax professional if you are considering pre-paying your taxes. If you choose to pre-pay your 2018 property taxes, be advised that there is no guarantee you will be able to fully or partially deduct these payments on your 2017 tax return.

1Q 2018 Property Taxes are normally due on February 1st

Both Boys & Girls National Fistball teams from Austria, Brazil, Chile, Germany, India, Italy, New Zealand and Switzerland are committed to play in the World Championships which the USFA & Roxbury will host at Horseshoe Lake in July.

The USFA is currently looking to recruit student athletes to learn and play Fistball on the USA National U18 teams for this summer's World Championships and beyond. To be eligible to play, you must be born after 12/31/99.

Indoor practices will be held at Roxbury H.S. and outdoor practices will be at the Swim and Sport Club in Roxbury starting in May.

All current and former players play H.S. sports: Soccer, Football, Lacrosse, Volleyball, Baseball, Basketball, Tennis, Swimming, and Track and coaches will work around practice and game schedules.

For more information, email Bob Feid @ b.feid@usfistball.com
